

Pythagoras Tree embroidery by Schrodinger's Duck

The Pythagoras Tree is a compact fractal. The patterns used to create the bark can be swapped with any other pattern, or simply replaced with cross stitch if desired.

This pattern is 42 x 29. The pattern could be continued to double its size, but further iterations would mean a lot of branches in the middle would start crossing.